Arabian horse festival is a new event concept aimed at supporting breeders of Arabian horses. Each presented horse that will pass the First Veterinary Inspection will be granted 500 € contribution. The combination of fitness test and strict veterinary examinations will test the future of each young horse, with special prizes for Best Condition and Best Recovery Time. Such rules guarantee that horse welfare will be a priority and, at the same time they will allow the horses with real potential to truly demonstrate their abilities.

The weekend will be the demonstrate of the whole week: FEI World Breeding Endurance Championship for Young Horses on Saturday and the auction of young horses that competed throughout the whole week on Sunday.

x-bionic® sphere is the epitome of passion, a place where people experience and celebrate the excitement of victory and success. This brand-new, unique, multipurpose complex is located in the vicinity of Vienna (Austria) and Bratislava (Slovakia) and easily accessible from key international cities and their airports, which creates a perfect gateway to the rest of the world.
